Notes:

- Familia* is the official journal of the Society and serves members by featuring articles about genealogy, family history and related subjects. Articles comprise original research, not previously published elsewhere.
- Annually members automatically receive four copies of Familia in electronic format AND (if specified and paid for) in printed format – in March, June, September and December.

Membership expires on 31 December and must be renewed on or before the last day of February of the following year.

List up to five families being researched. Indicate whether the whole family is researched or only a branch. Example: Smith (all) or Smith (branch of James Neville born 1889)

I hereby give permission to the GSSA to use any of my information reflected on this application and to be included in any publication of “Researchers and their fields of interest”.

CODE OF CONDUCT

As a member of the Genealogical Society of South Africa, I will:

- Actively seek to enhance the image of the Society without seeking personal advantage to the detriment of the Society
- Help promote public understanding of genealogy
- Behave at all times with integrity by respecting the privacy of others; give proper credit for the intellectual property of others; honour confidentiality of information; and not engage in discriminatory practices in my genealogical activities
- Accept full responsibility for any genealogical work that I undertake for myself or others.

GSSA collects Personal Information of members for the purpose of distributing the Familia, Genza Newsletter, branch publications, invitations to Zoom meetings and product offers. The information will not be shared with external institutions and members can unsubscribe from these mailing lists at any time.
